GDPR – Data Consent Form

The General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), which came into force on 25 May 2018, places certain obligations on organisations that regularly collect data. The Aberdeen Amateur Radio Society ('the Society') ensures that all information is collected, stored and used as intended but we do need to explain why we ask for it and to obtain your consent.

The Society seeks to be clear and transparent in the work that we do and in our recording and use of your personal information (data). In order to carry out our work we would like to collect and use personal information for which we need your explicit consent. Please read the notes below and indicate clearly your agreed choices (where applicable) and return the form to the Treasurer, whose contact details are given at the foot of this form.

We will keep your contact and basic membership information securely. It will only be seen and used by the appropriate committee members and officials of the Society. Your details will not be passed to any other member or third party except where appropriate (eg for booking Amateur Radio examinations).
