

The Aberdeen Amateur Radio Society

Data Consent Form

The General Data Protection Regulation, which came into force on 25 May 2018, places certain obligations on organisations that regularly collect data. The Aberdeen Amateur Radio Society ensures that all information is collected, stored and used as intended but we do need to explain why we ask for it and secure your permission.

The Aberdeen Amateur Radio Society seeks to be clear and transparent in the work that we do and in our recording and use of your personal information. In order to carry out our work we would like to collect and use personal data for which, we need your explicit consent. Please read the notes below and indicate clearly your agreed choice where applicable and return the form to the Treasurer whose contact details are given at the end of this form

We will securely keep your contact and basic membership information which will only be seen and used by the appropriate committee members and officials of Aberdeen Amateur Radio Society.

Your details will not be passed to any member or third party except when appropriate for Amateur Radio examinations.
